

SIELCZAK - Janusz "John," 83, of McCreary Lane, Fishertown, died Saturday, March 20, 2004, at Pennknoll Village, Snake Spring Township. Born in Warsaw, Poland, on Friday, Jan. 14, 1921, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sielczak. He retired after 25 years as a quality control inspector at General Dynamics, Avondale, N.J. He was the husband of Jennie D. (Lewandowski) Sielczak, whom he married on Sept. 29, 1973. He was of the Catholic faith. He was a member of the Polish National Alliance of Newark, N.J., and served in the Polish Army during World War II. In addition to his wife, he is survived by stepson, George Stojanowski, Woodbridge, Va. He is also survived by four step-granddaughters and numerous nephews. He was preceded in death by his first wife, two brothers and one sister. Funeral service at the Jack H. Geisel Funeral Home at 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday with the Rev. Allen Zeth officiating. Committal at Sacred Heart Cemetery, Central City. Friends are invited to call from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Monday at Jack H. Geisel Funeral Home, Pleasantville. 3-21