

BUHALA — Stephan, 80, 24 Fourth St., Cairnbrook, died March 18, 1970, at Windber Hospital. Preceded in death by parents; wife, former Anna Chizmar, in 1937; and two sons. Survived by these children: Mary, wife of Joseph Malik, Windber; Kathryn, wife of Martin Yatta, Central City; Steven, married to former Mary Valo, Ohio; Ann, wife of Leonard Grega, Central City; and Michael, married to former Margaret Nida, and Betty, wife of Frank Yatta, both of Cairnbrook; also nine grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren; sister, Mrs. Mary Andrejko, Wilkes-Barre, and brother, Peter in Europe. Member of St. John the Baptist's Catholic Church, Central City; Slovak Catholic Sokol; and Local 1023, UMW. Retired coal miner. Friends received after 7 p.m. Thursday at Robert P. Mulcahy Funeral Home, Central City, where service will be held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, followed by Mass of Requiem at 11 a.m. at St. John the Baptist's Roman Catholic Church, the Rev. Sylvester Bendzella officiating. Interment, church cemetery. Rosary at 7 p.m. Friday at funeral Home.