

JERZ — Walter F. Sr., 59, 288 Ohio St., died April 20, 1987, at Memorial Hospital. Born Oct. 8, 1927, in Cairnbrook, son of Andrew and Appolonia (Watres) Jerz. Preceded in death by parents; son, Andrew; and sister, Mary Varvorines. Survived by widow, former Jean Hamonko, and these children: Jean, wife of Cary Cuppett, Johnstown, and Walter Jr. and Vincent, both at home; also grandchildren, Randi and Christopher. Brother of Helen Lusczek and Chester, both of Cairnbrook; Stanley, Connecticut; Bertha Iuzzilino, Flushing, N.Y.; Stella Goldberg, New York; and Theresa Liedberg, Marietta, Ga. Navy veteran of World War II. Former employee of Flood City Brass and Pump Co. Member of Central City VFW, Moxham PNA and Greater Ferndale Sportmen's Club. Founder, past president and life member of Shade Sportmen's Club. Family will receive friends from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday at William Moskal Colonial Home, Moxham. Mass of Christian Burial at 10 a.m. Thursday at St. Patrick's Catholic Church, the Rev. William H. McGovern. Interment, Sacred Heart Cemetery, Central City, with military rite by local veterans organizations.