

Victor H. Jr. Landis

LANDIS – Victor H. Jr. of Bainbridge, Pa., formerly of Central City, died Saturday, Nov. 17, 2007, at ManorCare Health Services, Elizabethtown, after a long battle with multiple sclerosis. Born in Central City, he was the son of the late Victor H. Sr. and Eleanor Smolko Landis. He was the husband of Barbara Sesack Landis. They were married for 40 years on Oct. 1. Mr. Landis was a graduate of Shade High School and attended St. Vincent College and Lock Haven University. He was a member of Mary Mother of the Church Catholic Church, Mount Joy. A carpenter, he was a member of Local 287, Harrisburg, for 35 years, where he served as secretary for 17 years. He also taught apprentice carpenters for over 17 years. Mr. Landis was a member and past president of Conoy Lions Club and in the 1980s served as Cub Scout Master in Bainbridge and coached the Blue Jays girls summer softball team in Elizabethtown. He also enjoyed hunting and fishing. In addition to his wife, Barbara, he is survived by three children, Kimberly, wife of Michael Hughes; Victor H. Landis; and Deborah Landis, VMD, fiancée of Daniel Mayer, all of Harrisburg; two grandchildren, Emily and Garrett Hughes; and a sister, Eleanor, wife of Robert Yanity, South Carolina. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 24, 2007, at Our Lady Queen of Angels Chapel, 162 Wheeler St., Central City. Friends may call from 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday at Miller/Sekely Funeral Services, 130 N. Market St., Elizabethtown. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Heartland Home Health Care and Hospice, 217 Granite Run Drive, Lancaster, Pa. 17601, or National Multiple Sclerosis Society, 2209 Forest Hills Drive, Harrisburg, Pa. 17112-6039. www.millerfuneralhome.com. Local arrangements by Mulcahy Funeral Home, Central City.