

Mary Jane Augustine

CENTRAL CITY — AUGUSTINE – Mary Jane, 79, Central City, died June 9, 2012. Born Aug. 3, 1932, daughter of Dominic and Concetta Mary (Bruno) Augustine. Preceded in death by parents; twin brothers, James and Stephen; and nephew, John Kadillac Jr. Survived by sister, Frances Kadillac, Johnstown, and niece, Deanna Berkebile, Johnstown. Mary Jane graduated in 1950 from Shade High School and remained active in its reunion program until her death. She graduated from Cambria-Rowe Business College and Pennsylvania Highlands Community College, Johnstown. She worked for almost 40 years in administration for Bestform Foundations in Windber, and WT Grant Co. in Windber. Mary Jane attended daily Mass at Our Lady Queen of Angels Catholic Church, was active in her church ministries, monthly rosary and eucharistic devotion, activities center ministries, St. Vincent de Paul Society mission and youth programs, rectory and church volunteer (six days a week), as well as a member of the Society of Angels and its funeral lunch program. For many years, Mary Jane processed mailings and administration work for Humanitarian Interfaith Ministries or HIM Ministries, which cares for orphaned and abandoned children of the streets in 10 countries in Latin America. She had a great love for all children, especially for those who suffered in poverty. For years, Mary Jane was a caregiver and closest friend to the now deceased, Viola Maurizio, mother of Father Joe Maurizio. Special thanks to all Mary Jane's friends at the church who helped her when she was most in need. Friends received from 2 to 4, rosary at 4 p.m., and 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at Our Lady Queen of Angels Catholic Church, 738 Sunshine Ave., Central City, and friends also received at the church from 9 to 10 a.m. Wednesday, when funeral will be celebrated at 10 a.m. by Father Joseph Maurizio, pastor. Interment next to Mary Jane's beloved family in Holy Ground of the Sacred Heart of Jesus Cemetery, Central City, which was founded by Father Igneous Pilz almost 100 years ago. Arrangements by William Kisiel Funeral Home, Windber. Donations may be made in Mary Jane's name, in grateful appreciation, to Windber Hospice, for its 10 months of dedicated love and care to Mary Jane in her suffering with breast cancer, or donations may be made to her beloved HIM Ministries to care for orphaned and abandoned children of the streets in Latin America and sent to Our Lady Queen of Angels Church.
