

MATEY — Joseph P., 71, New Paris, formerly of Central City and Windber, died unexpectedly April 11, 1985, at home. Born July 16, 1913, in Windber, son of late Andrew and Mary (Gmitter) Matey. Preceded in death by brother, George. Survived by widow, former Joyce Blandford, and these children: Joanne, wife of Richard J. Seese, New Paris, and Joseph B., married to former Angie Sgroi, Johnstown; also five grandchildren. Brother of John, Windber; Andrew, Somerset; Steve, New York; Paul, Colorado; and Mrs. Anna Kranchalk, New Jersey. Also survived by sister-in-law, Margaret Matey, Cairnbrook. Army veteran of World War II. Was in invasion of North Africa, Sicily, France, Belgium, Holland and Germany. Recipient of Bronze Star. Council member of Boy Scout Troops 121 and 110. Institutional representative of both troops. Recipient of St. George Medal. Member of Chestnut Ridge Senior Citizens and St. Thomas' Roman Catholic Church, Bedford. Retired barber. Friends received from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday at Mulcahy Funeral Home, Central City, where service will be held at 10:30 a.m. Monday followed by Mass of Resurrection at 11 at St. John the Baptist's RC Church, Central City, the Rev. Lawrence Lacovic. Interment, church cemetery. Vigil service at 8:30 p.m. Sunday at funeral home. Mill