

Earl (Fredrick) Saylor, Jr formerly of Baswell died April 24, 1994 at Windber Hospital. Born in Baswell, PA March 5, 1933 Son of the late
Earl (Eats) Saylor, Sr and Eva Josephine Grasser

Survived by wife of 37½ years, the formerly Evelyn Lebeda of Central City and these children,

daughter Gwendolyn, married to Donald Hoffman of Central City, PA

daughter Laura, married to Joseph Lovrencic of Central City, PA

Son Joseph married to Maryann Letosky of Central City, PA

Son Earl (Fred) III married to Paula Bartak of Cairnbrook, PA.

Also survived by brothers, Jacob Saylor, Baswell, PA, Raymond Saylor, Baswell, PA and James Saylor of Stairstown.

Sisters Nancy Manges, Jerome, PA, Mrs Lester Blough, <sup>(Anna)</sup> Johnstown, PA
and Mrs Robert (Eva Mae) Felix of Holsopple.

Preceded in death by parents, foster mother Margaret Grasser, Baswell, brother Maurice (Pete) Thomas, Baswell, PA and sister Mrs Ronald (Grace) Pyle of Somerset.

He served in the military during the Korean War. He was formerly the mechanic at sewing factory at Dorfman, Hoffman. He brought the sewing factory to Cairnbrook in 1952 which employed much of the area people. Eventually he became manager of Dorfman Hoffman and then Jennifer Dale ~~and~~ of Cairnbrook and of JCE + Me of Holsopple. He was very well known and liked by people in this area.

Funeral Services held at Mulcahy Funeral Home. Friends received from 2:00 PM to 8:00 PM on April 26. Services held at Sacred Heart Church now, Our Lady Queen of Angles, Rev. Msr Wadas presiding on April 27, 1998 with Military Rights presiding at Sacred Heart Cemetery. Donations may be made to Our Ladys Burse